HONGKONG, DECEMBER 25th, 1911.

At Christmas play and make good cheer, for Christmas comes but once a year," is the advice given by an old English poet; and it must be admitted that it is advice which is cheerfully followed throughout Christendom. We remember, however, encountering in one of the Reviews a year ago an article in which it was asserted that Christmas as a popular festival was becoming increasingly unpopular, and that the family Christmas, such as we may read about in the literature of half a century ago, had almost entirely disappeared. The writer did not disclose his place of abode, but in his narrow circle he became impressed with the waning enjoyment of the children and the growing boredom of the grown-up people who affected to join in their amusements. He declared that a man of fifty who looked back to his childish days and remembered the enormous importance and splendour of the Christmas activities and gifts, not only in the halls of the then prosperous country squires, but in the middle-class families of towns; when Christmas was regarded as the season when all the members of the family within available distances gathered together, attended the Church which they had previously helped to decorate, gave each other presents, lighted up the Christmas-tree, played games, dined liberally, went to pan-tomimes, kissed each other (when not too nearly related) under the mistletoe, and generally were supposed to enjoy them-solves—the man of fifty who can recall these Christmas festivities of his boyhood was supposed to recognise that "we have changed all that." But most people, we feel sure, will agree with us that it is difficult to find the evidence which justifies these opinions. We have doubtless changed with times to some extent in the matter of the observance of Christmas, as we have changed in much else.

Improved travelling facilities and the tendency of the population to concentrate in the towns have admittedly worked for the disintegration of family life as the older writers have described it, but does not Christmas as a family festival appeal all the more strongly to the popular imagination on that account? Is not the enormous traffic over the railways at this season of the year almost entirely due to this? And do not the Christmas mails afford equally striking evidence against the idea of Christmas as a popular festival being on the wane? Particularly is Christmas the children's festival, and surely old Father Christmas never had busier times than he gets in this Twentieth Century, distributing toys to the young and other gifts to those who have passed the infant stage. In every home in England it is still the natural expression of goodwill and hospitality to stuff a man with indigestible fare, and if he is not encouraged to drink weird and warm concoctions of wassail and negus, he is nevertheless entertained with the same hearty hospitality as of old. The mutations of time have necessarily brought small changes in the programme, but they leave the essential traditions of the festival unimpaired; and if in such remote parts of the earth as Hongkong, the observance of Christmas lacks something in its character as a home festival, we can at least say that it is not because the exile from Home, man or woman, clings less tenaciously to its family traditions, for the exact contrary is the case.
Christmas is the one day above all others when thoughts linger on "the old home" and absent friends. But we rise superior to the regrets these thoughts evoke, and put ourselves in tune with the poet who wrote:

Without the door let sorrow lie;
And if, for-cold, it hap to die, We'll bury it in a Christmas pie And—over more be merry!

There will be no issue of the Hongkong Daily Press to-morrow.

It is notified in the Gazette that Mr. R.
E. Lindell and Mr. S. B. McElberry, candidates, passed their final examination in Cantonese on the 25th November, 1911.

The Yaumatei police have been advised of a case of piracy which took place off Pinghai near Swatow, in Chinese waters. A junk was attacked by 60 men in four boats, and one of the crew was killed.

We are asked by Pastor Müller to mention that to-day (Christmas Day) the service at the German Chapel will be held at 11 o'clock, on Saturday at 5 p.m. and on New Year's Day at 11 o'clock.

The American Army accounts show that a total sum of $2,087,362 (gold) was appropriated for army rations in the Philippines.
The average cost per day is worked out at 37.29 cents per day, while the average cost in the States is 29.03.

On Saturday afternoon the members of the Civil Service Cricket Club had their annual Christmas Tree. Mr. C. Bond acted as Father Christmas and distributed gifts to some seventy children, while the elders were regaled with suitable refreshment.

His Excellency the Governor has given his assent, in the name and on behalf of His Majesty the King, to the following Ordinance passed by the Legislative Council—Ordinance No. 59 of 1911—An Ordinance to further amend the University Ordinance, 1911.

His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint Mr. R. O. Hutchison to act as Assistant Superintendent of Police superintending the establishment, and Commander Beckwith, R.N., to assist Mr.
R. O. Hutchison in the discharge of the duties of Superintendent of Imports and Exports, with effect from the 14th inst. until further notice.

In the Government Gazette an announcement appears regarding the representation of Justices of the Peace on the Legislative Council. The representation of the Hon.
Mr. H. E. Pollock expires on January 10th next and he has expressed his willingness to stand again. In the event of another candidate being nominated, an election will be held on January 8.

A statement of the traffic on the British section of the Canton-Kowloon Railway for the month of October shows that the takings for local traffic amounted to $9,443.92, and for through traffic to $7,518-31. The passengers booked for local traffic numbered 8,397 and for through traffic 32,082. Since the opening of the section up to the end of October, the total takings have amounted to $159,185-51.

THE REVOLUTION.

THE ATTITUDE OF THE POWERS.

LONDON, December 23rd.
Reuter states that there is no truth in the report that Britain and Japan insist on monarchical government in China. The efforts of Britain and other Powers are being directed towards assisting China to secure efficient government based on popular approval.

FEARS FOR THE CONFERENCE.

LONDON, December 23rd.
Reuter's correspondent at Peking wires that the Government fears that the conference at Shanghai will fail.

The rebels are preparing to march northwards via Pukow.

ROBBING FROM THE DEAD.

LONDON, December 23rd.
Reuter's Paris correspondent states that robbers have opened the grave of Madame Lantelme, a favourite actress, and stolen jewels from her body to the value of £20,000.

LATER.
The outrage on the body of the actress Lantelme has caused a sensation in Paris.
The robbers scattered the images at the altar and removed three shells. They stripped the body of the wrappings of cotton wool, which a fallen watch fired, and the stifling smoke compelled them to retreat.
The firemen afterwards extinguished the flames and found the jewels intact beneath the pillow at the head of the corpse.

BRITISH WARSHIP IN A GALE.

LONDON, December 23rd.
During the recent great gale, the battleship London, which was on her speed trials, near Ushant, was swept by a sea and two of her crew were drowned. Commander Forbes was injured, and afterwards two men were seriously injured through a steam pipe bursting.

GALE IN THE NORTH SEA.

LONDON, December 23rd.
The recent gale played havoc with the fisheries, especially with French and British vessels. Nearly one hundred fishermen were drowned and many vessels lost. After many weeks of storms and almost continuous rain the wind dropped to-day, and the heavy weather gave place to sunshine. There is promise of a fine Christmas.

STRIKES IN BRITAIN.

LONDON, December 23rd.
The Manchester paving trade employers this afternoon decided to recommend a lock-out for Wednesday. The lockout will affect 160,000 men.

The position at Dundee is most serious.
The shipping companies have conferred and refused to compromise, on the ground that as the matter had now assumed a national character there was no ground for negotiation.

Sir G. Asquith is proceeding to Dundee to mediate with the men's leaders.
The strikers have succeeded in blocking cargoes at Leith destined for Dundee.

RUSSIA AND PERSIA.

PERSIA ACCEPTS ALL RUSSIA'S DEMANDS.

LONDON, December 23rd.
Reuter's correspondent at St. Petersburg states that the Persian Charge d'Affaires has called at the Foreign Office and notified M. Sazonoff of Persia's acceptance of all the demands in the Russian ultimatum.

SEVERE FIGHTING AT TABRIZ.

Telegrams from St. Petersburg show that the fighting at Tabriz on the 21st inst. was very severe, the Fidis attacking from the roofs and in the streets. The Russians repulsed a formidable attack at Bagitohmal with artillery.

The Russian colony took refuge in the Consulate until reinforcements arrived, and then the artillery began the bombardment of the citadel, where the Fidis were mostly gathered. The Russian corpses were horribly mutilated by the Fidis.

After the fighting at Tabriz, the Russians occupied all the Government offices and the telegraph station. The bombardment demolished many private buildings, and fifty Persians were killed. The Russians occupied the police and telegraph offices at Resht, where a number of Government officials were killed.

Reuter's correspondent at Teheran wires that Russian official sources state that while the Russian Government is sincerely desirous of withdrawing the troops as soon as possible, no pledge of immediate evacuation will be given on compliance with the ultimatum. No action has yet been taken regarding Mr. Shuster's position.

Official notices have been posted ordering the people to abstain from holding political meetings except with the sanction of the police, as the question of the Russian ultimatum is being amicably settled.

vises all his friends to support the Conservatives.

The papers comment on the reissue of the Papal decree excommunicating private individuals who, without obtaining permission of the Ecclesiastical authorities, summon any ecclesiastical before a criminal

It is stated that the Irish lay officers are denying the Roman Catholics justice.

has received the Grand Cross of the Red Eagle on the occasion of his transfer to

CANTON.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

CANTON, December 22.
PRECAUTIONS IN FATSHAN.
Robbers and brigands are still giving trouble round about Fatshan, and the soldiers there at present are not sufficient to keep the whole district in order, for whenever it is necessary for them to concentrate anywhere to quell a rising or capture some daring robbers the other pirates take advantage of their absence in other quarters.
Junks have suffered very severely in this district and there is a wholesale outcry for protection. A meeting held at Fatshan has decided to recruit one thousand men to be trained and form a provincial guard to protect commerce, especially on the river.
The Governor's permission has been received and the matter is to be gone on with at once.

PROPOSED MONUMENT.
The Rebels have not forgotten their unsuccessful rising last April, and one is always hearing comparison, contrasts, reasons, etc., for its failure. Especially are the leaders of this unfortunate attempt remembered, most of whom lost their lives. Yesterday a proposal was put forward by a large number of Cantonese to build a monument of some sort, say, a temple, in front of the provincial Assembly, to three of these "heroes" as they are always called, named Lam Kun Tsui, Chan King Ngan, and Wan Long Toi, who assassinated the Tartar General at the aviation meeting last April and who were afterwards beheaded. It is to be hoped that this matter will not get any further than talk, for it would be a very bad thing for the City of Rams to have a monument like this round which discord and fighting would be bound to take place.
Besides, the present Government would be ill-advised to countenance anything of the kind in their present uncertain state.

WINTER FESTIVAL.
Saturday was observed as a general holiday among the Chinese, the occasion being the Winter Solstice, which is one of four festivals held during the year. This means a long week-end for business people, for little or nothing will be done with Christmas and Boxing Day coming on top of this.

THE CLEVELAND TOURISTS.
The Cleveland tourists are coming here on Wednesday and Thursday, about 250 in number each trip. Arrangements have been made to have them conveyed from Hongkong by special steamer, the Kiushan having been chartered for that purpose, and on their arrival at Canton they will disem-bark at the Admiralty wharf by kind permission of the Authorities. I saw a letter from the Governor, headed "Kwang Tung Military Government," which is in itself significant, stating that they would guarantee them protection and safe conduct through the city. The company is to proceed to the different sights in the city, going as far as the Temple of the 500 Geni and then to Shamene, entering by the British Bridge. After going through the island they emerge by the French Bridge and thence along the new Bund to the wharf again to embark on the return voyage. The whole journey through the City will occupy about 2½ to 3 hours.

SHAMENE NOTES.
The fifty odd Marines who have been quartered here for the past month have been relieved to-day by one hundred odd men of the K. O. Y. L. I., who are being quartered in the Naval Canteen, as were the Marines, and in the Swimming Club's large premises.
The residents in the island are very sorry to lose Captain Snapp, who proved very popular everywhere and whose cheery presence will be missed for a long time.
The dance given by the Bachelor, Taipans was held last night in the Club Theatre and was a huge success. The attendance was highly satisfactory.

A PROTEST AGAINST GOVERNMENT ACTION.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG DAILY PRESS."]

Sir,—Most important changes in the law of the Colony especially referring to authorised architects are being brought before the Legislative Council.

No opportunity whatever has been given us to study these changes, and we, in the name of the Authorised Architects of Hongkong, most emphatically protest against such arbitrary action.—We are, Sir, certain repairs to be effected, and was due back there on the 21st inst. It is estimated that the repairs will take three days.

COMPANY MEETING.

EWO COTTON SPINNING AND WEAVING CO., LTD.

The sixteenth ordinary meeting of shareholders of the Ewo Cotton Spinning and Weaving Co., Ltd., was held at the offices of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co., Ltd., Shanghai, last week. Mr. C. E. Anton presided, and there were also present: Messrs.
A. McLeod, E. E. Clark and Zee Quan-yuen (Consulting Committee), A. Brooke Smith (Secretary), Brodie A. Clark, J. C. Dyer, J. Kerfoot, R. U. Hummel, H. W. Dady, R. E. Wilson, D. Brand, J. Johnstone, C. H. Butler, C. H. C. Platt and Paul Ching-poo.

The CHAIRMAN said:—Gentlemen,—With your approval I propose to take the report and accounts for the year ended October 31, 1911, which have been in your hands for some days, as read. During the first half of the year under review, the margin between cotton and our products was far from encouraging, but an improvement set in in the Spring and lasted until the outbreak of the Revolution, at which time it may be said that demand for yarn was becoming increasingly good. The General Managers and Consulting Committee venture to hope that the result of the working of the past twelve months may be considered satisfactory and that the proposed apportionment of the amount at credit of profit and loss account will have the approval of shareholders.

After providing for interest due on preference shares and the proposed dividend of Tls. 7 per share on the ordinary shares, the sum of Tls. 79,734.35 remains available for allocation, and I trust the desire of the Consulting Committee to build up our reserves by placing Tls. 40,000 to credit to equalization of dividend account will appeal to you.
With the addition of that amount, Tls.
290,000 will be available as the provision against years of bad trade. Additions and improvements are continually being made to the machinery in the mills, and those necessitate the transfer of Tls. 30,000 to special repairs and renewals account.

The machinery in both mills is in excellent working order, and it is to be regretted that the suspension of business in yarn, owing to the Revolution, necessitated night work in the No. 1 Mill being stopped on November 12—at the moment, the Mills are only being run during the day. The yarn and cloth produced by our new Mill—now called the No. 2 Mill—was in good request until business came to a standstill in the middle of October.

Your General Managers and Consulting Committee being well satisfied with the results obtained from the first lot of Looms, have ordered a further number, and early next year we should have 500 Looms in running order. The 1910-11 Chinese cotton crop was a record one, but prices were exceptionally high in sympathy with the rates ruling for American and Indian staple in the controlling markets.

As regards the size of this season's crop, it is impossible to form any idea, as, owing to the present disturbed state of the country, very little cotton is being marketed and receipts to date compare most unfavourably with those of last year. My own opinion is that the growth is below the average; however, the American crop promises to be a record one and we may reasonably expect to see low prices all over the world for some months to come.

In connection with other mills we had to put up with much adulteration in China cotton during the greater part of last season —the addition of water and other foreign matter became so serious that early this year a movement was made by several firms here, and the Cotton Anti-Adulteration Association was formed, which, with the aid of the Consular and Diplomatic Bodies, succeeded in establishing the Shanghai Cotton Testing House. The Testing House, which is controlled by the Commissioner of Customs and the Committee of the Cotton Anti-Adulteration Association, commenced work early this season, and appears to be operating to the satisfaction of all interested in the Cotton trade. So far, it has certainly put a stop to excessive adulteration, and thanks of the mills and exporters are due to the Consular and Diplomatic officials who so energetically induced the authorities in Peking to recognize the imperative necessity of making an effort to place the raw cotton trade of this country on a healthy basis.

A year ago my predecessor said: "It is practically impossible to say how we shall fare this year"—to-day, I can do no more than repeat his words and express the hope that, while the outlook is, at the moment, gloomy, peace may soon be arranged between the contending parties, that, at the next annual meeting, it may be possible to ask shareholders to pass an account equally satisfactory as the one now before you. If anyone wishes to ask any questions, I shall be pleased to answer them to the best of my ability.

No questions were asked, and on the proposition of the Chairman seconded by Mr.
A. McLeod the report and accounts were adopted.

A dividend of 7 per cent. per share on the ordinary shares was authorised for payment on a motion by the Chairman seconded by Mr. Dady.

The Chairman then proposed the re-election of the Consulting Committee, consisting of the representative of Jardine, Matheson and Co., Ltd., Messrs. A. McLeod, E. E. Clark and Zee Quan-yuen. This was seconded by Mr. Wilson and carried.

The final resolution, that Mr. Geo. R.
Wingrove be re-elected auditor, was adopted on the proposition of the Chairman seconded by Mr. Hummel.

The Chairman:—That is all the business, gentlemen. Dividend warrants will be ready to-morrow.

RANDOM REFLECTIONS.

I'm not too soon this year. A Merry Christmas to you!

It looks, too, as if we are going to have the weather that we would all wish for this season. A storm of good will and general happiness. A stormy sort of Christmas is something like a calamity, certifying as it does the pleasure of the occasion, but with bright skies and a bracing atmosphere it needs little effort to be merry.

The Christmas mail was a particularly heavy one, and not a few plum puddings came to hand. It is to be hoped that these will prove to be as palatable as the donors desired, but even if they don't it will not matter much, as they would still be appreciated for the kindness and the remembrance which prompted their despatch. While there were happy recipients of parcels on Thursday and Friday there were many who had to realize that their friends at home had not been warned to post in time, with the result that after the festivities have run their course parcels will be arriving which revive the Christmas and New Year feeling.

Though the year is running to its close, the Legislative Council has not concluded its labours in passing laws for the Colony, and it seems as if it had some more work in front of it. The members are by no means unanimous over the Public Health and Buildings Amendment Ordinance, and as others affected by the Bill would like to be heard on the subject there is every likelihood that it will not become law this year, even though it may reach the Revised Edition of the Statutes of the Colony incomplete.

The Bill certainly makes quite a number of changes. It amends the franchise and gives votes—not to women, but to professors and other academic officers. It is as well that the gentlemen to be identified with the University should know what their privileges are. It may help them to overcome any scruples about having Home for the Far East.

However, the most important of the changes are those which seek to give to the Director of Public Works certain arbitrary powers as Building Authority. The unofficial members with one accord opposed the proposal, and the explanation of the promoters that no better scheme could be devised was pook-pooked by most of the officials who will no doubt set themselves to the task of proving that a better arrangement can be devised.

One could almost wish that Hongkong had a badge to chance every week if the operation gives opportunities for such a speech as the Acting Colonial Secretary delivered on Thursday. It was amusing, as well as critical, and helped us to realize what a blot had rested on our tawdry reputation for so many years. As a matter of fact, the badge has hitherto been seen so seldom that nobody ever dreamed that it was so ugly until the discovery was made in the Colonial Secretary's Office. The new badge is undoubtedly simple in design, and nobody need blush to see it on our flag.

The man who is credited with having organized the present revolution in China, Dr. Sun Yat Sen, passed through Hongkong on Thursday. The fact that he refused to be interviewed shows that he has some sense of his responsibility, though this may be doubted on reading the utterances which he is reported to have made to a Chinese audience in the afternoon. He wants to borrow money from foreigners without giving security. This would suggest that the hospitality which he received in Europe has led him to form wrong conclusions and to imagine that foreigners are philanthropists first and business men afterwards. I don't think he will hug that delusion very long.

It is a worthy motive which prompts a man to safeguard the rights of a minority, but when that minority does not even exist it seems like a sheer waste of goodness. On Thursday last the Legislative Council was started when the Colonial Treasurer demanded recognition for the Clergy of the Church of Scotland in the list of voters and rebuked the Attorney-General for suggesting that such a person came under the heading of a Protestant dissenter, rightly pointing out that the Church of Scotland was an Established Church. But when it transpired that there were no clergy of that ilk in the Colony the Treasurer had sorrowfully to admit that there was no occasion for his taking further action. It does seem an anomaly that a Colony which boasts one of the largest gatherings of Scots in the Far East cannot run to a national church. Does it mean that the Scot forgets his early training, the ten Commandments, and sundry other teachings when he gets East of Suez? I hope not.

RODERICK RANDOM.

HAMBURG LETTER.

December 1st, 1911.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

Sir Edward Grey's speech on the Moroccan difficulties in the House of Commons on Monday night has failed to satisfy public opinion in this country. "Whoever expected it to foreshadow a change in Great Britain's attitude towards Germany has been mistaken," says the Colonial Gazette, frequently the mouthpiece of the Foreign Office in Berlin. He vindicates the policy he has pursued so far in the matter, and even the Opposition declares its approval of it. This was to be looked for, as it would have been contrary to the traditions of the British Parliament to leave the Government in the lurch on a question of foreign politics, which, although the danger point may be passed for the present, will continue to exercise an important influence on the general state of affairs for some time to come. The Freie Zeitung, the ultra-conservative organ, thinks that the speech, which has been applauded by all parties in England and appears to have somewhat relieved the tension there, was not conciliatory (entgegenkommend); "it has neither improved the situation nor made it worse, so that for the present, everything remains as it was." All papers agree that the pacific assurances of Sir Edward and the hope he expressed of more friendly relations with Germany in the future lack warmth, but they admit that he is right in saying that the process of reconciliation can be but a slow and gradual one and cannot be accelerated. Sir Edward states that England desires to live on terms of equality with Germany; let her prove it by no longer regarding us as a place in the sun; but as long as she looks askance at our colonial expansion and pretends to interfere in our dealings with other Powers, although her interests are by no means concerned, we must doubt the sincerity of her friendly assurances. "It needs no words to convince us of Great Britain's goodwill," is the cry of one and all. To be treated on an equal footing and to be left alone, is all we demand, adds the Reiniger Tagblatt, a liberal newspaper. At the same time Sir Edward's statement with regard to the triple entente, that it would become an impossibility if one of its members were to harbour aggressive designs against Germany or any Power, has been noted with satisfaction.

The discrepancy in the statement of the Reichskanzler in his speech in the Reichstag the other day, that he had received no communications from the British Government between the 1st and 21st of July, and Sir Edward's assertion that he had several informal interviews with the German Ambassador during that time without being able to elicit any information, is generally commented upon, and it is asked why, if that was so, was not Sir Edward Goetsch, the British Ambassador in Berlin, instructed to enquire of Herr von Bethmann-Hollweg himself. It is thought, however, that it may have been an oversight that will probably be explained in the coming debates on the Moroccan treaty in the Reichstag, and that at any rate it appears to be no longer of any consequence. More importance is attached to the significance given to Mr. Lloyd George's speech at the Guildhall on the evening of the 21st, which the German Reichskanzler would fain represent as being an after-dinner utterance; and surprise is expressed that the Foreign Secretary and his two colleagues, Mr. Asquith and Mr. Lloyd George, should have allowed themselves to be alarmed by unsubstantiated newspaper reports and still less by the native rumours from the coast.

The effect of Sir Edward's speech on the Bourse has been decidedly reassuring, and though the boom has followed, great firmness once more prevails and quotations are tending upwards. Trade generally seems to be pretty active, the accounts from the manufacturing districts, more particularly from the iron and textile areas, leave little to be desired taking them altogether, of which the difficulty in obtaining railway trucks for the transportation of raw materials to the interior affords corroborative evidence.

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

Copper and copper mining shares have been attracting attention of late, as present and prospective supplies of this metal are represented to fall far short of the requirements of the trade. There is little change to report in the prices of other articles, such as wool, cotton, coffee, sugar, &c. With regard to the last-named commodity, the announcement by Sir Edward Grey that Great Britain might under certain contingencies feel obliged to withdraw from the Brussels beet sugar convention at its expiration on September 1, 1913, is being much discussed. It may be remembered that up to the year 1902 the best producing countries not only levied a high import duty on foreign sugar but granted premiums on exports of the native article as well. The consequence was that beet sugar was sold cheaper in the English markets than at home, by which the preserving and other industries there benefited largely, whilst the growing colonies complained of being ruined by the low prices ruling. At their urgent and reiterated representations the British Government entered into negotiations with the beet producing countries for the abolition of export premiums, and a convention was concluded between the several Powers in Brussels in March, 1902, providing for a cessation of export premiums, a reduction of the import duties, and the exclusion of sugar from such countries as refused to join. Russia was the only one that remained outside, and her sugars were consequently shut out from the European markets. The result of the convention was that prices rose in Great Britain, which suited the colonies, but called forth remonstrances from the various trades that used the article, so that Government felt it necessary before renewing the convention in 1907 to stipulate that England should be permitted to import 200,000 tons annually from Russia. This was conceded, but the latter Power now demands that the quantity be increased to 600,000 tons, and is supported in this by Great Britain, which, however, declares itself satisfied with an additional 300,000 tons, say, 500,000 tons altogether, both governments engaging to renew the convention for another five years from Sept. 1, 1903, should their request be granted, but threatening to give notice to terminate the treaty on Sept. 1, 1912, should no agreement be arrived at. The permanent delegates from the different countries who are about to hold their annual meeting in Brussels on Dec. 8 will therefore have to consider the necessity of convening a congress of representatives of their governments early in the new year to discuss the question, which may result in an abrogation of the sugar convention altogether and to a return to the old system of high protective duties and export premiums.

THE PROPOSED HIGH COLONIAL COURT.

It is reported that while the proposed High Colonial Court will be definitely established at Berlin, a disciplinary colonial chamber will be opened in Hamburg.

THE POLICE BALL.

Although the atmosphere was rather sultry for dancing on Friday night, the annual ball organised by members of the Police Force drew a large number of terpsichorean enthusiasts to the City Hall. The function has become an institution in Hongkong, and the present ball was quite on a par with those of preceding years. The police who organised the ball were as assiduous as ever in attending to the comforts of their guests. The decorations were not on what could be termed a lavish scale, but they were as effective as could be wished. The staircase leading to the two halls was a mass of greenery and hunting, and St. George's Hall, in which the dancing took place, was prettily decorated with festoons of greenery. The supper tables were laid in St. Andrew's Hall, as of yore, and the old Chamber of Commerce room was again the meeting place for numerous guests who found dancing too irksome and preferred to while away the hours by card playing. The bar was in charge of Messrs. Atwell, Clarke and Cockle.

Messrs. J. Ogg and Cockle were the card room committee, while the supper arrangements were carried out by Messrs. J. Watt and J. Grant. The decorations and the general arrangements in connection with the function were carried out by a general committee, of which Mr. Baker was the head. The secretary, Mr. Lee, has occupied the position for the past five years, and his energy was again responsible this year for the undoubted success attained.

Dancing commenced at nine o'clock, and it is estimated that fully 250 dancers were present. The dance music was played by the band of the K.O.Y.L.L. The M.C.s. were Messrs. R. C. Watt, W. Stuart and A. Pattison. The programme, a very lengthy one, included three waltzes, as was the case last year, two lancers, two waltzes, quadrilles, military two step, an eighteenth century, L.A. Rink, P.D. Alberts, Caledonians, Boston two-step, Schottische, a bar dance, a polka, and a Sir Roger de Coverley. The programme was, in fact, almost the counterpart of last year's.

COMMISSIONS IN THE SPECIAL RESERVE OR TERRITORIAL FORCE.

The following dispatch from the Secretary of State for the Colonies is published in the Government Gazette:—

Downing Street.

15th November, 1911.

SIR,—I have the honour to inform you that the War Office have had under their consideration the question whether commissions in the Special Reserve or Territorial Force can be held by gentlemen belonging to the permanent Civil Service of the Crown Colonies and Protectorates, and that the Army Council have now decided that:—

(a.) Commissions in the Special Reserve will no longer be given to gentlemen permanently employed in civil capacities in the Crown Colonies and Protectorates.

(b.) Officers of the Special Reserve who are at present holding, or who may in future accept, such permanent civil appointments will be called upon to resign their commissions.

(c.) There is no necessity for an officer of the Territorial Force who has been seconded to resign his commission until he shall have reached the limit of the period (four years) during which he may be seconded from that force.

(d.) The Army Council have further intimated that officers will no longer be permitted to retire under the provisions of Article 510 of the Royal Warrant if they intend to take up permanent civil appointments in British Colonies and Protectorates. It is not meant, however, that the rule as to resignation of their commissions in the Special Reserve should have retrospective effect as regards officers who retired under the above-mentioned Article and are now employed under Colonial Governments. I have, etc.,

L. HARCOURT.

The Officer Administering the Government of Hongkong.

LAWN BOWLS.

Kowloon Bowling Green closed its season on Saturday afternoon when the finals in three competitions were played and the members were "at home" to their friends.

There was a good attendance. The championship competition resulted in an easy win for A. Ramsay over D. Keith by 21 to 6. G. R. Edwards beat S. Gray for the President's prize, by 21 to 10, and C. Alexander won from D. Cooper in the Edwards Cup by 21 to 20. At the close of play the prizes were presented by Mrs. Edwards as under:—

Championship—A. Ramsay; runner up, D. Keith.

President's prize—G. R. Edwards; runner up, S. Gray.

Vice-President's prize—G. R. Edwards; runner up, S. Gray.

"Telegraph" Cup (handicap competition)—J. Guy; runner up, A. Ramsay.

Edwards Cup—C. Alexander; runner up, D. Cooper.

Crownets singles competition—G. R. Edwards; runner up, G. K. Haxton.

Mr. D. Harvey, the president of the club, afterwards presented Mrs. Edwards with a beautiful bouquet, and on the call of Mr. W. Russell the donors of prizes were thanked for their gifts.

BOXING.

A good house witnessed the boxing at the City Hall on Saturday night. Bill Lewis acted as referee and the watch was in the hands of Mr. C. Bond.

The chief event of the programme was a twenty-two-minute round bout for the 10 stone championship of the Orient between Micky Dunn of H.M.S. Minotaur and Stoker Arnold of H.M.S. Monmouth. This went the full twenty rounds and ended in a draw. It was a good clean fight throughout, but owing to the continual clinching, was somewhat uninteresting. The decision of the referee met with the approval of the audience.

There were four preliminary bouts. The first was between Ferrigan of the Minotaur and Littlejohn of the Tamar. The latter was altogether too good for his opponent and Ferrigan was in trouble from the start. The third round saw him hugging the boards for over 10 seconds.

Seaman Gunner of the Adriatic and Seaman Skinner of the Monmouth next clashed, and mixed matters for a couple of rounds. In the third Skinner got in a heavy punch on to the jaw and Gunner had no further interest in the proceedings.

Six two-minute rounds between Healy and Duff, both of the Minotaur, proved very interesting. Healy did most of the leading, and several times got his men into tight corners, but Duff cleverly smothered up and thereby evaded punishment. There was plenty of glo and tussle and at the finish of the bout honours were easy.

Gannor Box, 12 stone, and Seaman Steer, 11 stone, next took the arena. They smacked each other for the first two minutes, and provided a golden opportunity for witty remarks from some of the onlookers. In the second round Steer waited all over Burt and put him to sleep with a gentle tap on the point.

Myles challenged the winner of the Arnold-Dunn bout for a side bet of $400. Pottis is inclined to meet Steer.
